ANGEL will give you a proper kick in the groin with the trio's physical approach to more or less acoustic and variations on improv, noise, glitch and other genres of the Anti-mainstream.

Having toured Scandinavia and Germany and performed at the Jazz and More Festival in Sibiu, Romania, alongside releasing two critically acclaimed albums, Angel is a band in the sense of having a clearly defined approach to making important music.

Angel is made up of three dedicated improvisers, coming from the thriving and fertile scenes of Berlin and Copenhagen.
